Judaism Through the Arts

Dear Parents,

Imagine a Hebrew school where your kids don't want to miss a day. They come in with a smile and leave humming a new Hebrew song.

Imagine a child who feels the warmth and spirit of Judaism and then imagine the pride of this child's parents.

Welcome to JUDA where the values and traditions of Judaism are vividly brought to life! Through stories, games, activities, and the universal language of the arts, Judaism becomes something that our children can learn, live and love.

JUDA aims for excellence in education and is committed to creating a loving and nurturing environment. With G-d's help, our children will grow into true role models who will shape our communities and world for generations to come.

Best wishes for a happy, healthy, and successful New Year!
